Location

Goring on Thames is an area of outstanding natural beauty on the River Thames. The John Barleycorn is near to the centre of the village and attracts a larger number of tourists and walkers with the Thames Path close by. The village has good rail links with Oxford, Reading and London Paddington.

Description

The property is a charming 18th Century tavern style village pub with the added benefit of 3 en-suite letting rooms for B&B. Being Grade II listed, the property is of period styling. At ground floor level there are two main bar / seating areas, kitchen and toilet facilities, as well as various stores. At first floor level, in addition to the B&B rooms, there is a further function / storeroom and landlords accommodation, with private access.

To the rear there is an enclosed pub garden outbuilding for storage and off-street parking for 2 – 3 cars.
